BY THE WAY

The President's message was a silent document.
It was silent on the negro at any rate.
What is to be the destiny of the negro?
The apologists are increasing.
The Washington Post is suffering with a severe attack of wind colic.
It will require two presidents, with the Post included, to make the negro accept such leadership as Kelly Miller and Booker T. Washington.
We have some words among the white people.
Editor Fortune of the New York Age is a manly and fearless journalist.
We need brave men and men of nerve.
Don't be a toady when you are right.
This is an ordeal through which the negro is passing.
There will be a bright day for the negro soon.
Be honest, true and manly.
What the colored race needs today is a Moses.
Is it best for the negro to be silent?
Be useful citizens and manly in your utterances.
Are the negroes cowards or are they manly?
Don't be alarmed, there will be a day of reckoning.
Speak the truth, be honest and sincere.
It is the coward who cannot speak the truth.
There are millions in this country who will need the help of the negro.

How did you like Editor Fortune's speech?
The Post as well as other papers need apologetic negro leadership.
There are breakers ahead.
Should a race be compromised because we don't want to insult our enemies?
Let us live in hope, the promise land will be reached some day.
Don't forget to express your honest convictions.
Think well of your neighbor, you may ask him a favor yet.
If you want a live paper, read THE BEE.

No one will regret the retirement of Secretary Bliss.
He will do all of his weeping to himself.

No one will weep because he leaves the Cabinet.
If one or two others will go, the country would be in a better condition.

It is the brave man who dares to express his honest convictions.
THE BEE takes the lead, and all others follow.

Send your advertisements to THE BEE. This paper will do you good.

It will be well for the negro to be independent in politics.

It is not necessary for the colored man to be uneasy.

There is a bright future before him.

RETROGRESSION IN NORTH CAROLINA.

We publish in another column the resolutions prepared by the democratic committee of North Carolina to be presented to the legislature for its indorsement and action thereon. Taken as a whole the resolutions constitute an epitome comprehending at once all the rancor, injustice, tyranny, recklessness, villany and barbarism which it is possible to compress in the few terms or to concoct within a decade. As an expression of civilization; the sentiments are but one short remove from the most abject and savage barbarism, the difference simply being that they propose to do by unjust laws and under specious forms of authority what savages under the circumstances would do by open violence and bloody deeds. It is first proposed to withhold from the colored people the means of receiving an education at public expense by adjusting their educational facilities upon the basis of the amount of taxes they pay, declaring it the "rankest injustice" to accord colored people equal advantages with the whites. This is indeed an anomalous position to assume in a republic where the doctrine of "the greatest good to the greatest number" is declared to be a central and controlling influence. The proposition to apply a tax, which can be levied by the public only for public purposes, to private or class use, is a proposition to commit, a theft as wicked and culpable as it would be to rob a bank or steal a horse. The theory which would justify the whites in appropriating the taxes paid by themselves to their own especial use and behoof will justify the colored people in doing whatsoever they would with the taxes they pay. The theory in either case is preposterous revolutionary, vicious unconstitutional and unjust. Besides, it is worse than anarchy to assume that the taxes paid constitute the largest or highest contribution to government or society. It is true that taxes furnish the means of revenue for the support of the outward forms of government. They pay for police service and the hire of other public agencies which guarantee protection to the property and interests upon which the taxes are levied and which afford restitution for or an equivalent of the imposition laid. But taxes are not levied for the purpose of protecting property alone. They constitute a revenue to be applied, when rightly applied, toward the maintenance of law and order and the enforcement of an implied guaranty of equal protection to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness of all, without regard to race, color or condition. The taxpayer may be and is a useful functionary. But that power which is able to produce the wealth upon which taxes are levied is by far the most useful factor and the proper basis upon which to accord rights and privileges.

If the white man pays the taxes, the colored man performs the labor which is represented in the wealth upon which the taxes are levied. In other words the white man at the South is being enriched by the poorly paid labor of the colored man and hence the latter not only pays all of the taxes levied, but has a just claim upon the white man for such a snug sum as would, if paid, render him happy and independent. The colored people of the South not only pay all of the taxes necessary to meet the expenses of government, but they pay for the very food and clothing of the lordly vagabonds who take pride in the fact that will not work. They rob the colored man in order to obtain the means of buying the products of the invention and labors of the yankee, whom they mortally despise, not because he is a republican, but because he is a superior person in all that determines the greatness or goodness of a people. The statement that only five per cent of the taxes are being paid by the colored people of the state is designed to mislead the northern people and to make it appear that they are not only poor, but are improvident and lazy and hence it is suggested that strict vagrancy laws be enacted to enforce industry, especially in the eastern counties of the state. The fact is that the whites are the idle and lazy people of the South and that if vagrancy laws are needed the whites would constitute the principal element to which the laws could justly apply. There is also a most strange coincidence between the necessity for vagrancy laws in the eastern counties and the fact that those counties are overwhelmingly repub.

The monstrous farce of justifying the disfranchisement of the colored people on the ground of their ignorance, poverty and indolence while insisting upon withholding education and commending and encouraging the denial of employment to them, is one which, but for the pertinacity of the hellish spirit which inspires it would excite our scorn and derision. It is transparent but ghastly. As it is we can only stand and wonder that a class of men of such fine and high sounding pretensions could be of such pusillanimous and despicable dimensions. North Carolina has set her face backwards. The late Senator Vance was a friend and champion of the cause of the education of the colored people; Waddell and Daniels are the exponents and promoters of the doctrine of ignorance. Vance believed in and insisted upon the largest opportunities for the employment of the colored people; Waddell and Daniels would produce a race of vagrants or convicts. The colored man is no longer a slave. He has tasted freedom, liberty, the energizing influences of education and refinement. The spark of patriotism has been kindled into a flame, his valor is renowned and his interest in principles, measures and men is ever increasing. North Carolina may attempt to turn back the tide; but the irresistible movement of the national conscience will forge its way onward, over the wreck of folly, madness, tyranny and hate, until justice and manhood—rights are guaranteed to all without regard to race, color or creed.

OPPOSED TO IT.

The bill introduced in Congress by Mr. Jenkins, to abolish the office of justice of the peace in the District of Columbia, doesn't meet with approval of the people in the District of Columbia. The abolition of the Police Court and the transfer of that business to the justices of the peace, would meet the unqualified approval of the people. There are more criminals made in the Police Court than in any institution in this city. If the office of the justice of the peace is abolished the poor people will meet with great hardships. We don't believe that Congress means to impose upon the people in the District any more burden. If the present bill becomes a law it will certainly operate against the poor people. We hope the bill will not become a law.

ASHLEY M. GOULD.

The appointment of Mr. A. M. Gould of Maryland as one of the assistant District attorneys brings to the office of the United States Attorney, one of the brightest young lawyers in the State of Maryland. Mr. Gould is a man of ability and will no doubt make a successful prosecutor. The retirement of Mr. Baker from the District attorney's office is to be regretted. Mr. Baker was very much liked by the members of the bar. District Attorney Davis has a successful acquisition, however, in the person of Mr. Gould.

A PARTY IN NAME.

The question that is being seriously considered by the negro is, is there a republican party in existence or is it a party in name only and not in principle? From existing circumstances, we are of the opinion that the republican party that once existed has passed away with the great men that represented the principles of that party. These men believed in human rights, and personal liberty. The party of today which claims to be the republican party is a party represented by professional politicians. The negro might as well learn first as last to adopt himself to circumstances and the situation which confronts him.

HOWARD UNIVERSITY.

The death of J. B. Johnson, secretary and treasurer of Howard University, makes a vacancy in that institution. As this is strictly a colored institution, we are of the opinion that some competent colored citizen ought to be appointed. We are inclined to the opinion that Dr. George H. Richardson, at present trustee of the public schools; Hon. John P. Green, Milton M. Holland, L. C. Bailey or Major C. A. Fleetwood would be acceptable to the people. Let us demand the appointment of one of these gentlemen. We are entitled to the place and ought to have it.

DEMOCRATIC PLAN.

RESOLUTIONS FOR CONSIDERATION BY THE NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.

RESTRICTING NEGRO PRIVILEGES

DIVISION OF SCHOOL TAXES, DISBAN-DMENT OF COLORED MALITIA.

CHANGE IN CONSTITUTION.

Special Dispatch to the Evening Star.

Raleigh, N. C., January 6.—The following is a copy of a series of resolutions which have been received here for presentation to the legislature, and which will be laid before that body at the first favorable opportunity. They may be regarded as expressing the sentiments of the democratic managers on the subject to which they refer, and suitable legislation to carry them into effect will, it is believed, be enacted.

THE RESOLUTIONS.

The resolutions are as follows:

"1. We favor better public schools and longer terms, and demand that the white man's taxes be used for white schools, and the negro's taxes for negro schools and condemn as the rankest injustice that an inferior race of ingrates that pay less than 5 per cent of the taxes should have equal school privileges with the white race, who pay over 95 per cent of the taxes.

"2. We favor a vagrancy law being made so strict in its application that the great horde of loafers infesting our eastern towns will be forced to work for themselves or for the public on the county roads, and we pledge ourselves to support such action.

"3. We favor the refusal of work and homes to vicious or troublesome negro politicians.

"4. We favor the sternest social and business ostracism of offensive white republicans, and believe they are the vilest enemies to our state and country.

NON-NEGRO MILITARY COMPANY.

"5. We favor a more liberal allowance being made to the state guard, and that its members and efficiency be increased; that any negro companies now existing shall be disbanded, and that hereafter no negro military companies be allowed organization.

"6. We demand such a change in the state constitution as will entirely eliminate the negro as a factor in North Carolina politics.

"7. We demand that corrupt officials be impeached, and any member of the general assembly who has been convicted of a felony shall be expelled from the legislature.

"8. We commend those railroads, factories and large mills that are giving preference to white over negro labor.

"9. We favor an amendment to the law regarding the carrying of concealed weapons so that a license will be required for the carrying of the same, the proceeds for the sale of license to go the public school fund."

HORN, THE TAILOR.

Among the most enterprising men in this city, Horn, the tailor, is numbered one of them. For industry, energy and an up-to-date tailor, Horn surpasses any in the city. No man should pay a fancy price for a suit of clothes when he can get the same suit for 25 per cent less and made from imported goods at that. Just think of it. If you want a good business suit made to order for one-half the price you would pay elsewhere, Horn, the tailor, is the man to see. He has only the expert cutter and fitter in the city. If you doubt this statement go on and have yourself measured. Horn, the tailor, 637 F street, northwest.

Horn, The Tailor.

SENATOR MASON.

The speech of Senator Mason, of Illinois, in the Senate, a few days ago was one of the most logical and eloquent speeches ever delivered by any one against expansion. Senator Mason will find the support of two-thirds of the American people against expansion. A government that cannot protect its own citizens certainly should not attempt to go away from home to protect people belonging to another nationality. Every loyal American citizen is against expansion.

INDIANAPOLIS, : : : IND.

Unhappy is the person who does not try to make others happy. Such is not the case with the teachers of Slater building. On last Tuesday afternoon Miss Laura Arnold was the recipient of two handsomely bound volumes of Victor Hugo works and a beautiful vase, with gold trimmings, which were presented by the ladies of the above named school. A luncheon was served at the same time, which was a complete surprise to Miss E. A. Chase, the efficient principal of this building. She knowing only of the presents given Miss Arnold. The happy event was in honor of Miss Arnold's birthday.

MUSICAL NOTES.

Mr. M. Flores, a Cuban violinist of high ability, is studying medicine at Howard University.

Mr. Paul Bolin, pianist, a student at the National Conservatory of Music, New York City, is considered the peer of any of the Afro-American key board artists now before the public. With an orchestral accompaniment of fifty musicians. Mr. Bolin played a chopine concerto last season at the Brooklyn Academy of music and his work was praised in the highest terms by the Brooklyn Daily Press.

Two of Washington's favorite vocalists have returned to the city and are likely to remain viz: Mr. Wm. Goodrich, tenor who was on the road, was called home by the loss of his father; and Mr. Wm. Hurley bass who for the past three years has been connected with Booker Washington's school.

Mr. Harry T. Burleigh, New York's great baritone is now, off on the road singing with a white quartette.

A bright future is predicted for Miss Josephine Wormley of the 15th St. Presbyterian church choir. This young lady has an excellent voice.

Miss Nellie Freeman contralto of Plymouth choir has been quite sick at her home on L street.

The members of Hoffman's Orchestra must certainly favor Uncle Sam's policy of expansion, judging from the bill boards they seem to be booked everywhere.

'Tis said that a reorganization of the Berean choir will take place shortly and a strong array of talent is being selected. We don't know of another church in Washington that possesses so much good talent to choose from as at Berean Baptist church.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. James L. Johnson basso of Anacostia, D. C., is again to enter active musical circles. Mr. Johnson is too good a musician to go into retirement.

Will M. Cook is meeting with success with his troupe "Clorindy" origin of the cake walk company. Packed houses greeted them at Kansas City, Mo., last week. The show is now speeding to California.

One of the most thoughtful papers which have been read before the Congressional Lyceum during its present term, was that presented Sunday afternoon last by Mr. Calvin Chase, editor of the BEE. His subject was "Organization," and though the essayist spoke but sixteen minutes he thoroughly covered every essential point.

A large and intelligent audience was present and indicated by their appearance that they were in full accord with the view so concisely expressed by the essayist: Miss Mattie R. Bowen, Rev. Dr. Hart, Messrs. T. L. Jones, D. A. Clarke, L. C. Moore and others.

Tomorrow at 3:30 p. m., Dr. J. N. Johnson, of the Bureau of Pension will read a paper intitled, "Constitutional Limitations."

Harry C. Bryant, who has for a number of years been a prominent figure on the burlesque stage as principal comedian with the leading companies, is this season at the head of a company known as Bryant and Watson's "Australian Beauties Burlesque Company." This company has won the highest praise wherever it has appeared as being one of the best organizations of the kind that has ever been on the road, and it is said to present an entertainment that is exceptionally clever from start to finish. As to the truth of these reports the patrons of the Lyceum will have an opportunity to judge for themselves, for the Australian Beauties are to appear at the old house the ensuing week.

The opening burlette, "The Typewriter's Wedding Day" details some of the incidents of a love affair between John Millions, a wealthy New Yorker, and his typewriter, Dorothy Flash. As in real life the course of true love does not run smooth, and there are many amusing mixups before the final happy ending. Smith O'Brien appears as John Millions and Ruby Marion as Dorothy Flash. The other characters are played by Sim Williams, Evelyn Finner, Lillie Vedder, Mabel Hazleton, Edith Kennedy, Marion Blake, Ida Austin, Josie Allen and May De Campe. The variety olio is bright specialties, including Smith O'Brien, the popular balladist and monologist; Williams and Adams, clever burnt cork entertainers Sheenhan and Kennedy, eccentric comedians, Hazleton and Vedder in a novel sketch, and May Rhea, who has a phenomenal voice.

In "The Duke de Monte Carlo," Harry Bryant plays the leading character, a tramp out of the kind he makes so amusing. It is here that frivolity runs riot and the pretty girls of the company have their inning.
